SUBJECT:

Lloyd's Agreement

Reference is made to Department Airgram 1504 of May 6, 1953, and Embassy Despatch 5630 of May 19, concerning the Embassy's agreement with Lloyd's.

There are enclosed four certified copies of the agreement and four uncertified copies of the letter written by the Ambassador to Lloyd's when returning the signed agreement.

Also enclosed are four copies of the statement provided by Lloyd's showing the status of U.S. Government subscriptions on their books as of April 1, 1953, the date the agreement became effective. The statement gives for each subscriber:

Publications and number of copies sent

Price of Annual subscription

Expiry date

Pro-rata refund plus 100% in accordance with the agreement

These refunds have not been made to the Embassy, but stand on Lloyd's books as a credit against the first payment due on July 1. The total of the refund credit is $8568.66, which is made up as follows:

- | | |
|---|-----------|
| 1. Pro-rata refund of unexpired subscriptions ... | $4246.93 |
| 2. Refund of 100% additional | 4246.93 |
| 3. Refund of unexpired air and letter mail costs | 74.80 |

Total credit

$8568.66

Item 1; It should be noted that the Embassy in receiving item 1 as a credit also assumes the obligation to supply publications to the equivalent value. If at some future date the agreement is terminated, it will be necessary to pay Lloyd's the unexpired portion of subscriptions outstanding at that time. It would seem advisable to retain this amount as a permanent reserve in the fund against such a possibility.

Item 2 is actually a net profit and may be applied toward the first payment.

Item 3 is for mailing expense, specifically excluded from the agreement, and must be paid to Lloyd's for the unexpired portions of the subscriptions to which it applies.

Below is a record of new subscriptions received since April 1.
